- No

I understand that an investment in private securities is very risky, that I may lose all of my invested capital, that it is an illiquid investment with no short-term exit, and for which an ownership transfer is restricted.

- Yes

I understand that this investment is an indirect investment in the specified private company's equity: this EquityZen fund vehicle will invest in a separate fund vehicle managed by a third party that will purchase the equity of the specified private company.

- Yes

Thank you for completing your Investor Suitability Questionnaire. Investments in private securities offerings are speculative, illiquid, long-term investments that carry a high degree of risk, including the potential loss of all of your principal on this investment. You should consider whether this investment meets your risk tolerance, investment time-horizon and liquidity needs.

- Yes, I understand the risks
